Private School Supervisory Board

Letter No. Kapaka (Establishment)/2024 (004)

Date: 2 February, 2024

Subject: Registration and Establishment of Private Schools

1. The State Administration Council has promulgated the Private Education Law, and the notifications of the directives on registration of private schools and institutions have been issued by the Private School Supervisory Board.
2. The Regional Private School Supervisory Boards are to assure that the private basic education schools following the National Curriculum, in compliance with the Private Education Law, can commence in the 2024-2025 School Year. The Regional Private School Supervisory Board shall report to the Private School Supervisory Board about the employment of foreign teachers (if there are any) after preliminary enquiry.
3. The Regional Supervisory Board shall undertake a preliminary enquiry for the registration application of private higher education institutions and private schools that follows the international curriculum, and report to the Private School Supervisory Board no later than March 8, 2024.
